

God's JUSTICE through US (Job 29:12–17; 31:13–28)

1. Job's JUSTICE was more than a MINDSET; he was DOING JUSTICE.
2. Job's JUSTICE was more than optional CHARITY; it was SIN for him NOT to CARE for the VULNERABLE.

God's JUSTICE for US (Romans 3:23–26)

1. Infinite LOSS WITHOUT Him.
2. Infinite GAIN IN Him.

God is JUST

Psalm 146

Sunday, August 11, 2019

For many, the idea of God is far-fetched – let alone a God of justice, given all the wrongs of the world. And yet for something to be truly and ultimately wrong, the true and ultimate One must have said so. Otherwise, wrong and right, for that matter, are just opinions. So what is just? We have to start with God and His word to truly understand justice and to have any hope of doing justice in a world that desperately needs it.

God's JUSTICE towards HIMSELF (Isaiah 48:11)

1. God VALUES Himself ABOVE all else.
2. God DEFINES VALUE by EXPRESSING Himself in all He does.
3. God's INFINITE value demands an INFINITE due.

God's JUSTICE towards OTHERS (Psalm 146:7–9)

1. PUNISHING the WRONGDOER.
2. CARING for the VULNERABLE.

God is JUST

Psalm 146

Each week, we provide these questions for our Growth Groups. Growth Groups are the glue that holds our church together. Most groups are on break for the summer, but enrollment will happen again this Fall. This summer, we are continuing to provide questions in the hope that families and households might use them to interact with the message content of our summer series, "The God You Can Know."

Digging into God's Word & the Message Together

1. How did you come under God's word this week?

2. Explain how God is the origin of Justice.

3. What does God's justice look like in the world today and in eternity?

4. What is a next step towards doing justice for you personally, with your household (family and/or roommates), and Growth Group?

5. How could God be just in saving the unjust?

Praying Together

This week, begin with thinking about God's justice. Seek to come to a place of praising God for His justice. Confess ways you can grow in doing justice and seek the Lord's help. Be sure to share requests about your life as well as we approach the end of Summer.
