Tim Theule

No matter who you are, what you're facing, or how you are feeling on this Sunday before Christmas, John 4 is the Word of God to you today...

Jesus _____ about you.

Jesus _____ you.

NEXT STEPS:

What is the longing of your heart today? What do you need? What are you thirsty for? Go to Jesus with those longings and needs. Bring your heart trust to Him. Ask Him to satisfy those longings and needs this week as we move toward Christmas.

Jesus is the _____ to your need.

NEXT WEEK:

Christmas Eve | 4:00 PM at SLO & 6 PM at all campuses

Christmas Sunday | 9 AM at all campuses

Growth Groups are the glue that holds our church together, the way we find and follow Jesus together. If you are not involved in a Growth Group, now is the perfect time to jump in at gracecentralcoast.org/groups

CONNECT (ask these questions to check-in with your group)

Share something that's good and something that's hard about Christmas for you.

DISCUSS (use some of these questions to process God's Word together)

1. Read John 4:1-30 together. How did you "come under" God's Word and the message this week? How did this text/message speak to you?
2. Contrast Nicodemus in John 3 with this woman at the well in John 4. Why is the woman Jesus engages at the well an outsider in 3 different ways? Explain.
3. Think about a time when you were really thirsty. Describe what that felt like. For what do our souls and the souls of others thirst?

4. Read Jeremiah 2:13 and Isaiah 55:1-3. How do these passages connect to John 4? What are some of the "broken cisterns" we turn to, and stuff we labor for, that does not satisfy?

5. Do you really believe that Jesus can satisfy your soul thirst? What does it look like to keep bringing your thirsty soul to Him?

PRAY (use these prompts to pray in response to God's Word)

- Together, use John 4:1-30 as a springboard to bring your soul thirst to Jesus.
- Take some time to pray for those you know who are far from God, those who need Him, but don't know it.
- Share needs and pray for one another.
